

Integration through education

Are you looking for new ideas in the work with youth?

Don't you know how to speak about migration and refugees?

Are you bored of using the same scenarios from years?

„Integration through Education“ (ITE) answers the lack of the tools in the work with youth the field of migration and refugees.

What is ITE?

The project aims to create web platform with educational materials for people working with youth, especially with immigrants and refugees with open access to them, allowing them to put these topics in provided educational and integration activities. It's running since October 2016.

Who is behind of it?

Social-educational initiatives centre PLUS (Lithuania) is focused on promoting the development of cultural diversity and tolerance among different ethnic and other social groups, democratic values, multicultural dialogue, civic responsibility. Also, to create better integration conditions for immigrants and refugees living in Lithuania by providing various consultations and Lithuanian language courses.

Make it Better (Portugal) aims to develop of human society, in all its aspects, in particular, economic, social, environmental and cultural, linked to moral duties of solidarity and justice and to other values inserted in its charter of principles.

Foundation Institute for Socio-Economic Balance (Poland) aims to create favorable conditions for development informal education and dissemination of life long learning concept. Its goals are realized through educational activities aimed at the development of social and civic activism of all groups and institutions working in this space. Its activities are focused on anti-discrimination and intercultural education.

Ecos do Sur (Spain) provides information and training of migrants for social inclusion, personal and family development, health care, European citizenship, intercultural learning. Its activities include preparation of the future through discussing and sharing experiences about using and developing new technologies, equal opportunities, study and working methods and migration.

EURO (Italy) with the aim of promoting and implementing local development projects in Sicily. The organization works towards establishing and maintaining cooperative relationships with Public and Private Institutions both in Italy and abroad. It works closely with integration structures in order to provide non-formal education activities to their youngsters.

How you can benefit?

- access to free scenarios about migration and refugees in native language
- good practices of integration from five European countries
- international training course for youth workers
- workshops in each partner country
- network of organisation dealing with the topic of migration
- international final conference

To get more information follow our facebook page

Project is funded by the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union